You must have your biometric features recorded within 14 days of the application being submitted

You must have your biometric features (facial photo and fingerprints) recorded for your residence card in person. This must be done within 14 days after you have submitted your application.

Remember to bring your passport or other travel document and this receipt.

Where can I have my biometric features recorded?

In Denmark, you can have your biometric features recorded in one of SIRI's branches.

Remember that you must always book an appointment

(<http://www.nyidanmark.dk/tidsbestillingSIRI>)

Abroad, you can have your biometric features recorded at certain Danish diplomatic missions and application centres (<http://www.nyidanmark.dk/biometri>)

Case processing time

SIRI has set a service target for the maximum case processing time.

Read about SIRI's service goals on nyidanmark.dk

(<https://www.nyidanmark.dk/sagsbehandlingstider-SIRI>)

Once the case has been decided, you will receive a response. If SIRI needs more information during the case processing, we will contact you.
